School Message

The Core Competencies (Communication, Thinking, and Personal and Social) are part of the BC curriculum. Learning these skills sets students up for success in school, in the workplace, and in their relationships with others. Students will bring home a copy of their recent reflection and goal-setting activity three times over the course of the school year.

Teacher Overall Comment

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung consistently demonstrates strong work habits and contributes positively to our classroom community. He shows kindness toward peers and leads by example during group activities. During silent reading, Junhyung settles quickly and engages deeply with texts. He participates thoughtfully in class discussions and read-alouds during our Romeo and Juliet unit, often offering insightful ideas. Maintaining this high level of focus and commitment will support continued growth throughout the remainder of the year.

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/curriculum/english-language-arts/8

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung demonstrates strong confidence in understanding and interpreting complex texts, offering insightful observations about themes, relationships, and social dynamics. He communicates ideas with clarity and precision, using evidence purposefully to support his thinking. His writing is polished, well-structured, and shows sophisticated control of language. Junhyung consistently extends his learning through thoughtful analysis and independent connections.

FRENCH 08 Term 2: EXTENDING

Sara Pratt

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/fr/curriculum/core-french/8

Term 2 Comments: This term, Junhyung has further extended his understanding of French language and culture. He is an attentive and active listener who connects well with peers, offering support and engaging positively. In class, Junhyung works hard, stays focused, and participates regularly. His assignments, tests, and projects demonstrate a thorough comprehension of vocabulary and grammatical structures. Fluency is well practiced and continues to improve steadily. Junhyung successfully acquires, interprets, and presents the French language through a variety of oral and written activities. His assignments and projects are completed on time with consistent effort, often exceeding expectations.

MATH 08 Term 2: EXTENDING

Matthew Winkler

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/curriculum/mathematics/8

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung demonstrates an exceptional understanding of mathematical concepts and consistently applies knowledge with confidence and independence. Junhyung excels in solving problems involving probability and linear expressions and shows strong proficiency when engaging with complex, multi-step equations. Work is completed thoroughly, accurately, and with a clear demonstration of reasoning. Throughout the Grade 8 year, Junhyung has continued to extend learning beyond expectations and shows a high level of initiative and mathematical thinking.

PHYSICAL AND HEALTH EDUCATION 8

Term 2: PROFICIENT

Ben Stanchfield

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/curriculum/physical-health-education/8

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung demonstrated a developing ability with body awareness and spatial awareness in both individual and team activities. He consistently demonstrates safety, fair play, and leadership while participating in a group. His communication, teamwork and sporting behaviour fully meet expectations. He is able to assess the potential short-term and long-term consequences of health decisions, including those involving sleep routines and the influence of social media and advertising.

SCIENCE 08

Term 2: EXTENDING

Matthew Winkler

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/curriculum/science/8

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung has demonstrated remarkable aptitude in atomic theory, consistently exceeding grade-level expectations. Junhyung's ability to grasp complex concepts and apply them effectively in class activities reflects a strong and sophisticated understanding of atomic structure. Engagement with challenging material is evident through insightful questions and a clear passion for scientific inquiry. Junhyung's curiosity, analytical skills, and dedication contribute to exceptional performance in atomic theory.

SOCIALS 08

David Lloyd

https://curriculum.gov.bc.ca/curriculum/social-studies/8

Term 2 Comments: This term, our Social Studies curriculum was integrated with English Language Arts through an in-depth exploration of Shakespeare. Students engaged in reading, analyzing, and performing scenes from one of his plays, developing their understanding of historical context, language, and dramatic structure. This interdisciplinary approach supported critical thinking, collaboration, and communication skills while connecting literature to the broader cultural and historical themes typically explored in Social Studies.

Term 2: EXTENDING

Jonnie Bridgman

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung is continuing to make excellent progress on his instrument and has shown a high level of performance and strong understanding of musical concepts in term 2. Junhyung is able to perform increasingly more complex musical excerpts with accuracy, confidence and musicality. Junhyung is encouraged to continue showing leadership in his section and seeking out new musical challenges to further his skills. Junhyung has been a consistent member of the jazz band this term where he has developed his improvising skills. With continued consistent practice at home and effort in class Junhyung will continue to have success in band.

HOME EC 08

Term 2: PROFICIENT

Final: PROFICIENT

David Lloyd

Term 2 Comments: Junhyung demonstrates a solid grasp of kitchen routines and safety practices, though occasional reminders are needed to maintain consistency. He works well with peers and contributes positively to group tasks, but can further strengthen his communication and leadership in collaborative settings. His cooking and baking skills are developing steadily, with successful results in most projects. Continued practice will help him build greater confidence and independence in the kitchen.
